

THE CITY OF PETERSBURG

THE COCKADE AND APPOMATTOX BOATCLUBS CONSOLIDATE.

A. P. HILL Rifles to Go Into Camp at Ocean View.—Dr. Battle Sick in Bed.

PETERSBURG, VA., May 24.—Special.—At the annual meeting of the Cockade City Boat Club held in March last a proposition was made to the Appomattox Boat Club of this city to merge the two clubs into one.

The Cockade Club to-night accepted the proposition of the Appomattox Club, and the two clubs were therefore consolidated. There is now only one boat club in Petersburg.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

A review was given on last Sunday night at the second Baptist church, of which Rev. A. G. Frisbie is the pastor. Rev. Mr. Frisbie will be assisted by a Baptist minister from Richmond.

The Rev. Oscar S. Bunting, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, preached a special sermon last night on "Progressive Laity."

Rev. H. W. Battle, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist church, delivered a special sermon last evening before a large congregation. His subject was "Self Sovereignty (body and spirit), involving Athletics in the Light of Christian Thought."

In the course of his sermon Dr. Battle made very complimentary allusion to the Cockade City Cycle Club.

Dr. Battle is confined to the house to-day by sickness.

TO GO INTO CAMP.

The A. P. Hill Rifles of this city, Capt. M. C. Jackson, will go into encampment at Virginia Beach in July next.

Death from Lockjaw.

HAMPTON, VA., May 24.—Special.—Hugh Bolton, the eleven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bolton, died yesterday morning. About two weeks ago Hugh fell from a tree striking his head, and since then the effects protracted his life, and though the fall was almost entirely out, at first the fall was not considered dangerous, and he seemed to be improving rapidly until a few days ago, when lockjaw set in. He suffered greatly until he died.

Fraud in Charge.

In an Assignment—A Big Railroad Suit.

A Receiver Appointed.

In the Law and Equity Court yesterday on behalf of the Tuttie-Smith Company and others, Messrs. Quayle and Dillard, of Atlanta, Georgia, caused filing an application for the appointment of a receiver for the property of C. & H. Kaufman at No. 125 East Main street, to take the place of the trustee named in the deed of trust recorded in the Chancery Court clerk's office on the 18th instant.

The complainants allege that the assignment was a fraudulent one, that some of the claims preferred were fictitious; that the firm had bought large quantities of goods above the demands of their trade, and that representations were made as to their financial worth, and that some time prior to the assignment the firm ordered large lots of goods which they sold to other merchants below cost, without receiving the goods into their stock.

The case will be heard Thursday morning.

An injunction will be asked for at once restraining the trustee from disposing of any moneys in his possession belonging to this trust.

The complainants allege that the liabilities are in excess of the amount set out in the deed of trust.

The suit of John Allman vs. the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company for $200 damages will begin to-day in the Law and Equity Court. Their day has been allowed in which to hear the cause.

Judge Waddill and Mr. George J. Hooper represent the plaintiff.

On the petition of the Union Theological Seminary, Judge Minor appointed Messrs. James B. Eliam and James C. Lamb receivers for the portion of the property of Mr. Allan Talbot conveyed to them as trustees, and in the name of the Seminary, the rate of which was entered by Judge Blyl of the Supreme Court of Appeals last Thursday afternoon.

On an amended bill Mr. R. A. Lancker, who was appointed receiver for the business of Talbot & Sons Company, on April 11, 1886, was empowered to rent the property on the northwest corner of Franklin and First street for a period not exceeding five years.

The court refers to it as commendable the questions whether it is expedient for the interest of the creditors of Talbot & Sons Company to continue to operate or carry on the works and mills of the company after the expiration of sixty days allowed by the decree heretofore entered in this cause. It is further ordered that the commissioners report what plan of reorganization of the company is proposed.

MR. DE FAUCILLE THE WINNER.

He is Awarded the Woods Medal at Richmond College.

PETERSBURG, VA., May 24.—Special.—At the annual meeting of the Cockade City Boat Club held in March last a proposition was made to the Appomattox Boat Club of this city to merge the two clubs into one by Hiram Woods, Esq., of Baltimore.

The contestants were: Wm. M. Ernest W. B. Daugherty, subject, "Death Bed of Benedict Arnold"; J. Day Lee, subject, "Kentucky Belle"; William Smith, subject, "Surry's Dream"; John S. Eggleton, subject, "Uncle Remus" Experience at Church; G. C. McDowell, subject, "Hamlet's Soliloquy"; and S. P. DeVault, subject, "How Ruby Played."

Every contestant declaimed well and the varied selection made up a most attractive programme.

How Ruby Played.

The judges were Messrs. C. W. Chandler, Esq., Hon. Hill Montague, and Professor J. C. Chandler, of the Woman's College.

They awarded the medal to Mr. DeVault, and their decision seemed to meet the approval of everybody.

Mr. Hill Montague in announcing their decision mentioned the difficulty of the piece as determining the contest and congratulated Mr. DeVault and the judges that he had selected this piece which is a composition of the late Dr. Brereton of Richmond.

TUESDAY MORNING we shall offer to our patrons and the public some very special values, selected from every department in our house. In many departments we want space for our mid-summer stock; in other cases low values are caused by a too early arrival of goods intended for later trade, among them many high-grade Scotch and Irish Linens, Towels, Damasks, Bed Linens, &c. The new tariff bill will make these linens from 30 to 40 per cent. higher than we are now offering them. You know our space is limited; so to make room for new stock the old must be moved.
